It has the honour of being the first college in Maharashtra to receive affiliation from SNDT Women's University in the year 1958. It is a UGC recognized Linguistic Minority College. The college is dedicated to the principle of making higher education accessible to women from all strata of society and has the vision statement as - Empowerment of Women through Quality Education to make them Competent, Self-reliant, Responsible Home-makers, Professionals and Citizens. The College offers a variety of aided and self-financing courses. The College received 'A' Grade with a CGPA of 3.614 from the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in October 2013. The College received UGC Status: College with Potential for Excellence. The College is celebrating 60 years of dedicated services to the cause of Women's Education. More details about College is available on the college website- www.mmpshahcollege.in About B.L. Amlani College B.L. Amlani College of Commerce &amp; Economics and M.R. Nathawani College of Arts, under the banner of Manushi Karshi Lalbai &amp; Mohini Lakshmi Kamnabhai &amp; Balganga Trust was established in 2009 in the Juhu area of suburban Vile Parle. The College is affiliated to University of Mumbai and one of the few girls' college offering quality professional degree education in Mumbai. The Motto of the college is ENLIGHTEN AND EMPOWER!	About the Conference India's service sector covers a wide variety of activities such as trade, hotel and restaurant, transport, storage, banking and finance, insurance, communication, real estate, business services, community, social and personal services and services associated with construction. The contribution of service sector to the Indian GDP is continuously increasing at higher rate. This is due to the fact that India has large pool of highly skilled, low cost, and educated workforce in the country. This has made sure that the services that are available in the country are highly competitive at global level. But there are lots of challenges and issues related to different aspects of service sector at present time. The motive behind this conference is to highlight those opportunities and challenges for future development of service sector. The one-day conference seeks to make a sincere effort to bring about intellectual discussions and deliberations among the resource persons and the participants on the varied aspects of service sector and gather ideas on further reforms that may speedup an already vibrant economy and place India as a force to reckon with.

Dear Prabha Balakrishnan Nair,

On behalf of the United States Department of State, I would like to congratulate you on your selection for the International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP). The fact that you have been chosen for this award is a testament to your dedicated service to secondary school children and is international recognition for your excellence as a teacher. Let me offer you my best wishes for an exciting and successful program in the United States.

During this program, you will be based at a school of education at a U.S. university. There you will work with a group of outstanding educators from around the world. You will have the opportunity to take university classes and seminars, share and discuss teaching best practices with colleagues, and observe and teach in a U.S. school. Your participation will bring a global perspective to U.S. classrooms and we hope will be the basis for long term collaboration between you and your U.S. school. You will also participate in a variety of cultural and community activities, and visit Washington, D.C. for Welcome Program.

The U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) provides funding for and sponsors this program. IREX (International Research & Exchanges Board) administers the program on behalf of the Department of State. ECA will be working cooperatively with IREX to help ensure that you have a successful program in the United States.

Enclosed you will find the terms and conditions of your grant. Please take the time to carefully review all these materials.

Again, congratulations and best of luck as you embark on your program. I look forward to meeting you in Washington, D.C. in January!

Sincerely,

Dear Prabha Balakrishnan Nair,

Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you that because of your outstanding record of teacher leadership in your community, excellent application, and interview, you have been awarded a fellowship for the International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP), a program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State, administered by IREX (International Research & Exchanges Board). ILEP provides teachers the opportunity to audit classes and participate in a customized education course at a U.S. university as well as participate in a field experience at a U.S. secondary school.

The program will begin on January 6th and end May 15th, 2015. The following will be provided under the terms of the fellowship: J-1 visa support; a pre-departure orientation held in your home country; round-trip airfare from your home city to and within the U.S.; a Welcome Program in Washington, D.C.; academic program fees; housing (generally shared with other program fellows); accident and sickness health benefit plan; a daily allowance for meals and incidentals during the university academic program; a technology allowance; a book/professional development allowance; an End of Program Workshop in Washington, D.C.; an excess baggage/shipping allowance; and the opportunity to apply in the future for ILEP Alumni Grants.

To confirm your acceptance of the Fellowship, you must complete four important steps as soon as possible and no later than September 26th, 2014:

Send the following documents to your contact the U.S. Embassy or Fulbright Commission in your country:

1. Terms and Conditions of Participation; Review, complete and return Section III: Fellowship Acceptance Form and the Photo Release Form
2. A copy of the photo and information pages of your passport valid at least until November 20, 2015 (if not already submitted with your application). A color copy is preferable.
3. Medical History and Examination: Complete Parts I, II and III prior to the medical examination. Parts V, VI and VII must be completed by a qualified, licensed doctor, physician or nurse practitioner.

If you have questions about your fellowship or how to complete the above listed documents you may contact IREX at irex@irex.org.

Once again, congratulations on being selected for the International Leaders in Education Program. We look forward to seeing you in Washington, DC!

Sincerely,
