

Smt. Maniben M. P. Shah Women's College of Arts & Commerce
Matunga-400019

BA with Hindi

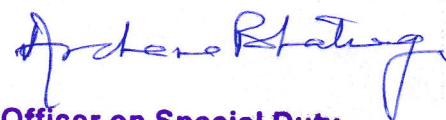

Objectives:

1. To create interest in the students about Hindi literature
2. To impart knowledge of Hindi literature in the students.
3. To introduce students to eminent personalities from the field and discuss their contribution with the help of books they have authored
4. To help students understand how a particular topic can be studied from different perspectives

Program Outcomes:

At the end of the 3 years Degree programme

1. Students will gain knowledge about Hindi language, culture and tradition.
2. Students develop ability for creative writing, communication and translation in Hindi.
3. Students will be able to pursue further studies related to Hindi language, literature, mass media
4. Students will become competent to pursue careers like creative writers, translators, poets and authors.

Officer on Special Duty
Academic Section
SNDT Women's University,
Mumbai - 400 020.