

Smt. Maniben M. P. Shah Women's College of Arts & Commerce
Matunga-400019

B.A with Marathi

Objectives:

1. To create an interest in Marathi literature and develop language and communication skills
2. To develop skills in translation, creative writing and critical analysis
3. To develop competency in Literary Forms Such as Marathi poetry, autobiography, novel, short story, drama & performing prose.
4. To cultivate literary research attitude
5. Recognizing the contribution of eminent Marathi Authors and writers who are enriching Marathi literature and culture.

Program Outcomes:

At the end of the 3 years Degree programme

1. Students apply the study of Marathi Linguistics and Grammar in their practical life.
2. Students will develop skills in translation, creative writing and critical analysis
3. Students will become competent in Literary Forms Such as Marathi poetry, autobiography, novel, short story, drama & performing prose.
4. Students will pursue further education in literature and civil services.
5. Find jobs for their livelihood in the fields of education, in media as script writers, feature writing and news writing, translation work in Modi script through Add-on course in Modi Script.

5/3/2019

Officer on Special Duty
Academic Section
SNDT Women's University,
Mumbai - 400 020.